

Child Rights Governance (CRG) & Protection Specialist

- Vacancy for: Few
- Posted on: July 1, 2017
- Deadline: Sept. 6, 2013, midnight

Basic Job Information

Job Category : NGO / INGO / Social work
Job Level : mid
Job Location : 0
Offered Salary : None

Job Specification

Education Level : Graduate (Masters)
Experience Required : Not Required

Other Specification

- Minimum 3 years of work experience in similar field.
 - S/he should have a high level of technical skills,
 - knowledge and experience on strategic and annual planning in the area of CRG & Protection.
 - S/he should have experience in all aspects of program development, proposal writing and resource mobilization.
 - S/he should demonstrate ability to work effectively in multi-cultural settings with a wide variety of stakeholders and present complex information in an understandable manner.
 - The position holder should have good advocacy and representation skills, excellent interpersonal & communication skills and the ability to work under pressure/stress.
 - S/he should have expertise in Microsoft office package and fluency in Nepali and English language (spoken and written) and should be able to produce quality reports/documents in English for knowledge management and documentation.
-

Job Description

- The Child Rights Governance (CRG) & Protection Specialist works closely with the Senior Advocacy, CRG & Child Protection Specialist to provide strategic direction, timely technical inputs and guidance to Save the Children's CRG & Protection team and to ensure that high quality child focused CRG & protection programs are developed both in Nepal and Bhutan.
- S/he will develop new and/or innovative child focused result oriented programs/projects, including leading and promoting child participation programming both at the national and field level.
- S/he develops minimum standards for activities/interventions in CRG & Child Protection and revises/updates them for continuous improvement.
- The Specialist will support the Senior Specialist to establish, maintain and strengthen relationships, linkages and collaboration with relevant government line ministries and child rights/civil society organizations (CSOs) to influence & support the formulation/reformulation of legal/policy framework on child rights in compliance with international human/child rights standards to promote the child rights agenda in the country.

Term and Location: Fixed term position and will be based in Kathmandu with frequent field visits

Applying Procedure

None

Generated By